

Carol Hudson Retention Director

Carol has over 30 years of operational and sales experience across the foodservice industry and has worked for Compass for 15 years in both USA and UK.

Prior to joining Compass Group in 1998, Carol spent 12 years with Gardner Merchant where she gained her operational experience from the roots up. Leaving as an Operations Director in 1991 she joined an independent consultancy company for seven years, where she gained an insight and client perspective that is vitally important in her current role as Retention Director for Compass Group UK and Ireland.

Since returning to the UK from the USA in June 2011 Carol has been working to strengthen the focus on our clients and the things that are most important to them.

Carol currently resides in Bedfordshire and is passionate about skiing and anything that involves being on the water.
